ARAWC Connect 2024

Occupational Injury Conference

Dallas, TX

2024 Sponsorship Opportunities

ARAWC and the Connect Event

The Association for Responsible Alternatives to Workers' Compensation (ARAWC) is comprised of leading national, regional and state employers, third party administrators, insurers, brokers, law firms and other occupational injury experts dedicated to delivering improved benefits and achieving better outcomes for injured employees and cost savings for employers.

ARAWC is returning for its second-year hosting and facilitating the 2024 ARAWC Connect: The Occupational Injury Conference!

This industry wide one-day event is for anyone involved with occupational injuries. This conference is a place to connect, engage, and learn.

The conference will be comprised of must attend sessions from industry experts with networking intervals throughout the day.
